"Secondhand Lions"

Saturday, September 14
2:30 p.m. - Fellowship Hall

Timid teen Walter finds himself spending the summer with his two eccentric great uncles at their farm in Texas. None of the three is happy about it. With time, they begin to appreciate each other. One uncle tells Walter stories of daring and adventure, but Walter is left wondering whether the tales are true or fantasy - just as he wonders about the hidden treasure the uncles are reputed to have. The uncles decide to buy a used lion...and life gets crazier still! Rated PG; run time 109 minutes.
