

Sanctuary Poinsettias

A poinsettia was given in memory of Marge Colescott and Horace Conner by Jack and David Colescott.

A poinsettia was given in memory of Kelly Lowder by The Lowder Family.

A poinsettia was given in memory of Kelly's father Paul Miller by Dale and Kelly Lambeth.

Christmas Joy

We have touched many lives this Christmas season through your generous and gracious gifts. Through the Shoebox Ministry, the Salvation Army Christmas Angels, the Food Boxes, Dragonfly House blankets, and the Christmas parties for the Prison Ministry and Cancer Services, we have shared Christmas Joy. Your faithful giving through our church budget enables us to share God's light and love year round to those in need.

Informal Worship Next Sunday

We will celebrate New Year's Eve with an informal service of worship at 11:00 a.m. You are invited to briefly share how you experienced God this year.

Sunday Service Warm-Up Begins January 7th

Special music in the sanctuary each Sunday morning beginning at 10:40 a.m.

2018 Parker Lectures

Dr. Pam Durso, Executive Director of Baptist Women in Ministry will lead our Parker Lectures February 3-4. Dr. Durso, who has her Ph.D. in Church History will speak on Women in Church History.

New Year, New You!

Integrative health coaching sessions with Whitney Brooks at FBC

What are you hoping for in 2018? Start the year off on the right foot by setting your intention and living it out. In January, join Integrative Health Coach Whitney Brooks for a free 45-minute, one-on-one coaching session to determine what you can improve to create a balanced and healthy lifestyle. We'll discuss your own vision of optimal health and what that means to you, then we will talk through steps to get you on the right path to lasting happiness. More details to follow in the January Steeple Talk.
